

MEET THE GLOBAL SALES AGENTS

Olivia Xing – Sales Manager Australia & New Zealand Global GreenTag International

Olivia Xing was eager to apply her passion for sustainability with Global GreenTag International when she joined the company in early 2021 to deliver quality sales services for clients.

Olivia is a graduate from the University of Queensland with a Bachelor's degree in Communication and a Master's degree in Business, majoring in Social Impact and Sustainability. She looks after Global GreenTag's prospects and current Australian and New Zealand clients with regards product certification, renewal, and re-certification sales enquiries.

Experienced in customer relationship management and customer services, Olivia worked prior to Global GreenTag in various sectors such as Education and Travel Retail.

Olivia is also trilingual, fluent in Mandarin, English, and Japanese. She provides business development support for our sales agents in Mainland China and provides additional support to the growth of Global GreenTag in other countries, assisting with communication with international clients and manufacturers.
